Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy, together with its annex (collectively, this "Policy"), explains how Sensible Intelligence Lab Co., Ltd. (the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") collects, processes, uses, and protects your personal data. To ensure that your rights are fully protected, please read the following carefully.

Scope

This Policy applies to individuals ("you") who use the content and services of georgi.ai, including its subdomains and all language versions (collectively, the "Website").

In addition, the Website may contain links to other third-party websites or services. When you use those third-party websites or services, their respective privacy policies, rather than this Policy, will apply. Because we have no control over how third-party websites or services handle data, we recommend that you carefully review the privacy policies applicable to those websites or services before providing any data to them.

How We Collect Personal Data

When you contact us through the "Request early access" form or other forms on the Website, we will ask you to provide certain personal data, including, without limitation, your name, company name, job title and email address. We use this personal data to respond to you and to provide you with follow-up services.

You may freely choose which personal data to provide to us. However, if the personal data you provide is insufficient or inaccurate, this may affect the services we are able to provide to you.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Data

We will not sell, rent, or trade your personal data to any third party. However, we may disclose your personal data in the following circumstances:

(a) when cooperating with an investigation, order, or request from a judicial or administrative authority; or
(b) in any other circumstances in which personal data is disclosed in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Your Rights

Except as otherwise provided by law, you may exercise the following rights under applicable law with respect to the personal data you have provided to us: to inquire about or request to review it; to request a copy of it; to request that it be supplemented or corrected, upon providing an appropriate explanation; to request that we cease collecting, processing, or using it; or to request that it be deleted. To exercise any of these rights, you may contact us by calling the following number:

Phone: +886-984-011-331

Information Security

We take stringent measures to protect your personal data. Our information security management system conforms to the ISO/IEC 27001:2022 and CNS 27001:2023 standards and has been certified by a third-party certification body. However, you should be aware that transmitting data over the internet carries inherent risks and cannot be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Accordingly, we cannot guarantee that the personal data you transmit will be absolutely secure, and you should exercise due care and bear the risks associated with transmitting personal data over the internet.

Changes to This Policy

We may amend this Policy at any time as circumstances warrant, in order to protect your rights and the security of your personal data. The amended Policy will be posted on the Website and will take effect upon posting. If you continue to use the Website after any such amendment, you will be deemed to have accepted the amended Policy.

Annex 1: Notice under the Personal Data Protection Act

1. When we collect personal data from you, Article 8, Paragraph 1 of the Personal Data Protection Act of the Republic of China (Taiwan) (the "PDPA") requires us to clearly inform you of the following:
   (a) the name of the government agency or non-government agency;
   (b) the purpose of collection;
   (c) the categories of personal data;
   (d) the period, geographic area, recipients, and method of use of the personal data;
   (e) the data subject's rights under Article 3 of the PDPA and the means of exercising them; and
   (f) where the data subject is free to choose whether to provide personal data, the effect on the data subject's rights and interests of not providing it.

2. The purposes for which we collect your personal data, the categories of personal data collected, and the period, geographic area, recipients, and method of use of your personal data are set out below:

Specific Purposes	Marketing; consumer and customer management and services; consumer protection; information (communications) and database management; information and communications security and management; surveys, statistics, and research analysis; contractual, quasi-contractual, or other legal relationship matters; collection, processing, and use of personal data by non-government agencies to fulfill statutory obligations; and other consulting and advisory services.
